STP presents Waiting for the Parade, directed by Carolee Mason

Date and Time: Thursday, May 1 7:30 pm

Address: 63 Gore St East, Perth

Waiting for the Parade is one of the most well-known Canadian plays, praised for its portrayal of the Canadian home front experience by John Murrell. Directed by Carolee Mason, this year will signify the 80 years since the end of WWII, and this play will reflect on the contributions women made during that time. Rather than depicting war itself, the play examines its impact on those at home, revealing the emotional, social and political struggles they face. Experience the heart-warming and humorous journey of five Canadian women on the WWII home front in John Murrell's acclaimed play.

63 Gore St. East, Perth; tickets through ticketsplease.ca; tickets are $24; 30 years and under $12; from ticketsplease.ca;

Opening Day Tea & Aerial Farm Photos

Date and Time: Sunday, May 18 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 2130 Concession 6D, Middleville (Lanark), Ontario, K0G 1K0

Join us for a cup of tea, local coffee and some sweet treats to kick off the 2025 season. On Opening Day, the Museum will be featuring local aerial farm photographs. These photographs were taken from small planes by air force pilots and then sold to the farm owners. Many families proudly displayed the photographs in their home. Come and enjoy this visual record of agricultural history in the area.

If you have a local farm photograph and would like it to be included in the display, please contact the Museum at middlevillemuseum@gmail.com, in advance. The Museum hopes to record the rich agricultural history of the district through these pictures.

No advance registration required. $5 each or by donation.
