Meet the Artist at MERA: Linda Krakow Eaman

Date and Time: Sunday, November 3 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 974 Concession Road 9A Dalhousie, McDonalds Corners

Meet the Artist at MERA: The photography of Linda Krakow Eaman on November 3rd
Linda Krakow Eaman has had a camera in her hand since she was a child growing up in Montreal, photographing her family's travels and making prints in her father's basement darkroom. While university and her early career took her in other directions, photography has remained a constant throughout her life, sometimes as a hobby and, for almost 20 years, as a business focused on portraits and events. After living in Silicon Valley and in London, England, in 2020 Linda and her husband moved home to Canada. They now live on beautiful Wolfe Island, Ontario, where you're most likely to find Linda tending her chickens and garden, or wandering with a camera and a sketchbook. Linda's website and blog: www.LKEphotography.com. Linda says "Photography is how I see the world. I am a photographer of life: from street scenes to landscapes, insects to elephants, portraits of loved ones and of strangers. Photography adds depth to every experience, helping me connect with people, cultures, and the world around me. And it allows me to share that with others; a photograph can tell a story and open a window to another place and time. In recent years I have found myself turning increasingly to nature. It's a respite from the challenges of the world, and a never-ending source of wonderment. Moving to the country has brought me closer to nature, figuratively and literally—and my camera is never far away. Our travel has become more nature focused too, from camping in Algonquin Park, to watching puffins in Scotland, to a magical safari in Botswana. Immersing myself in the natural world has fed my soul and brought me joy. I share these images in the hope that they will do the same for you." Linda will be exhibiting her photography at MERA (McDonalds Corners/Elphin Recreation & Arts) for the month of November. Please join her for a Meet the Artist event on November 3rd, 2pm – 4pm.

Music at MERA: Tragedy Ann

Date and Time: Saturday, November 16 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 974 Concession Road 9A Dalhousie, McDonalds Corners

Liv Cazzola and Braden Phelan are Tragedy Ann, partners in life as well as music. Combining their sublime vocal harmonies with organ, accordion, singing saw, and guitars, Liv and Braden bring their unique musical observations with a style that is authentically their own. Arresting melodies and finely crafted arrangements frame lyrics that invite thought and reflection. These are disarmingly beautiful compositions with honesty and range, unafraid to explore everything from bliss to despair. This concert will be special. Liv and Braden will be on tour as a trio with Peter Klassen on upright bass. Saturday November 16 was our only opportunity to book Tragedy Ann this year and we have decided to go with an evening performance.

“...finely crafted and carefully arranged songs with the honesty and enthusiasm of people who can't help but create and perform” — Jon Farmer, Georgian Bay Roots Radio

“Two wonderful people with two wonderful voices: Tragedy Ann have struck us right in the heart with their soulful songs and stories. Who likes great folk will love this duo.” — Sylvie (& Sven), Poptown (SofaConcert) hosts, Hamburg, Germany
